Masterpiece romance: Lasting love takes to the screen in 'Alice & Jack'

Show PBS some love this St. Patrick's Day when "Alice & Jack" makes its premiere on Masterpiece. Starring Irish actor and screenwriter Domhnall Gleeson ("Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows: Part 2," 2011) and English actress Andrea Riseborough ("To Leslie," 2022), the six-episode drama series premieres Sunday, March 17, on the network.

While "Alice & Jack" premieres to North American audiences midway through the month of March, it first premiered on England's Channel 4 this past Valentine's Day (Feb. 14) — a timely release due to the ongoing romantic theme of the series.

The six-episode series, which was created by "Mad About You" and "Mad Men" producer Victor Levin, spans 15 years and "explores the seminal question of whether the bonds between us are stronger than the forces that would tear us apart" (per PBS).

When Jack (Gleeson), a calm, reserved scientist, meets a young, tightly wound financier named Alice (Riseborough), the pair instantly hit it off despite their many differences in both lifestyle and personality. They spend just one night together before returning to their separate lives, but over the course of a decade and a half, Jack and Alice meet repeatedly — often by chance — and begin to question what it is about the other person that keeps them both coming back.

Described by Fremantle, the show's distribution company, as a "love story for the ages," "Alice & Jack" is arguably a more realistic representation of romance in the modern world than the traditional meet-cute romantic comedy. With so many possibilities to interfere with love, trust and friendship these days, the nature of our relationships have changed drastically, and TV fans need look no further than these star-crossed lovers for confirmation.

Following the series' September 2023 premiere at the Toronto International Film Festival, PBS Masterpiece executive Suzanne Simpson described "Alice & Jack" as "exceptionally beautiful and profound" and added that Masterpiece is "proud to add" it to their lineup. And while it is easy to praise the show for its will-they-won't-they quality that has every hopeless romantic on the edge of their seat, critics, such as Marya E. Gates of RogerEbert.com, are just as quick to point out that "Alice & Jack" is far from a fairytale romance.

"As each character does unthinkable things, Levin's script slowly reveals emotional layers that color why they might make such decisions, asking viewers to examine the thornier sides of life," writes Gates, later adding that the miniseries is "more honest about human behavior than most romances allow."

All this said, the heavy subject matter and at times brutal honesty do not weigh the series down, a feat that is largely due to moments of comic relief on the part of the supporting cast. Chief among these providers of levity is Aisling Bea, who plays Jack's later-in-life partner, Lynn. Bea, now best known for her work in the Irish comedy "This Way Up" and the low-key sci-fi dramedy "Living With Yourself," is gaining popularity stateside for her quick wit and cheerful banter — a welcome addition to the uncertainty brought to the screen by Alice and Jack.

Whether you are in the mood to celebrate the little things that bring us together or mourn the sticking points that tear us apart, PBS's newest television experience, "Alice & Jack," has you covered.

When in close proximity, fire and water makes steam, and the same goes for firefighters Andy Herrera (Jaina Lee Ortiz) and Lt. Jack Gibson (Grey Damon). Things get hot in an all-new episode of this Shondaland favorite, as tensions — good and bad — make for strange bedfellows in the firehouse. The seventh and final season of “Station 19” continues Thursday, March 21, on TLC, with only nine episodes to go. Start the series from the beginning, with more episodes available to stream at abc.com/shows/station-19

Showrunning hit kids' shows like “iCarly” and “Zoey 101,” Dan Schneider solidified his legacy. After former stars and staff came forward, accusing Schneider of creating unsafe work environments for the child actors involved (including multiple crew member arrests for child abuse), that legacy was forever changed. Taking a look at the concerning accusations, “Quiet on Set: The Dark Side of Kids TV” premieres its first episode Sunday, March 17, on Investigation Discovery. A trailer for the series is available online, at youtube.com/watch?v=LvyULepxgw4

Kish's kitchen: 'Top Chef' returns with a new twists and all-star host

Things are shaking up in "Top Chef" with new rules and a new host when it returns Wednesday, March 20, on Bravo.

Following Padma Lakshmi's ("Taste the Nation with Padma Lakshmi") departure from the series last summer, this beloved cooking competition will now be led by "Top Chef" Season 10 winner Kristen Kish ("Fast Foodies"), who is no stranger to the highs, lows and boiling tempers that can erupt when chefs are faced with non-stop, increasingly difficult challenges.

As per previous seasons, Kish will be joined by returning judges Gail Simmons ("Star Plates") and Tom Colicchio ("Best New Restaurant") — and see some exciting celebrity guests, such as Carla Hall ("Girls Trip," 2017), Brittany Snow ("Pitch Perfect," 2012) and Matty Matheson ("The Bear") — as the group heads to the midwest to America's Dairyland: Wisconsin.

In an exclusive sneak peek for the upcoming season, shared jointly by People, Entertainment Weekly and Food & Wine, Kirsh reveals that this time around, they've "gathered rising star chefs from across the country here to Wisconsin," allowing viewers a glimpse at the competing cooks and a taste of what's to come.

Judge Tom Colicchio takes over from there, explaining the newly changed rules of the game, as this time around there will be no immunity given for Quickfire wins. Following the Quickfire, the winning chef in question was previously awarded a prize, an advantage or immunity going into the elimination challenge. Now, however, the only sure-fire way to stay safe and remain another week is to make it through the elimination challenge unscathed.

Even when eliminated, however, the game doesn't stop there. Popular tie-in web series "Last Chance Kitchen" returns alongside the season premiere, offering eliminated chefs an opportunity to prove their worth and potentially make their way back into the competition through skills-oriented challenges.

"This isn't going to be easy," Colicchio explains, closing out the sneak peek. "At the end of this, there's only one person left. You got to make sure it's you."

With 15 contestants — ranging from James Beard Award finalists to chefs running Michelin-starred restaurants — the competition is sure to be fierce, with each chef determined to win the life-changing title and a prize of $250,000.

Sharpen your knives: the cutthroat competition kicks off when Season 21 of "Top Chef" premieres Wednesday, March 20, on Bravo.

BEST IRELAND MOVIES

John Wayne in "The Quiet Man"

"The Quiet Man" (1952): The ultimate Ireland movie in the eyes of many, director John Ford's classic stars John Wayne as a returnee to Ireland who's determined to capture the heart of a lass (Maureen O'Hara) despite her brother's (Victor McLaglen) interference. Turner Classic Movies presents the film as the second half of a St. Patrick's Day double feature Sunday, March 17.

"Darby O'Gill and the Little People" (1959): This Disney treat may be best remembered for giving an early screen showcase to someone who would establish an iconic character several years later ... Sean Connery, pre-James Bond.

"Young Cassidy" (1965): Rod Taylor had one of his best roles as the younger incarnation of writer Sean O'Casey in this atmospheric drama, started by director John Ford but finished by Jack Cardiff.

"Finian's Rainbow" (1968): This Francis Ford Coppola-directed musical is loaded with the charm of Ireland, along with the tuneful work of Fred Astaire, Petula Clark and Tommy Steele.

"Ryan's Daughter" (1970): Director David Lean makes full use of the location as said daughter (Sarah Miles) becomes involved with a British soldier (Christopher Jones).

"Barry Lyndon" (1975): Director Stanley Kubrick's lengthy, scenic drama stars Ryan O'Neal as an Irishman who weds a widow (Marisa Berenson), seeking to succeed her late husband aristocratically.

"My Left Foot" (1989): Daniel Day-Lewis earned his first of three Oscars by playing Christy Brown, who overcame major physical challenges to make his mark artistically.

"Far and Away" (1992): Though the locale shifts to America, director Ron Howard's vehicle for Tom Cruise and Nicole Kidman captures the essence of turn-of-the-century Ireland quite effectively early on. This is the first half of TCM's St. Patrick's Day double feature on March 17.

“Please Don't Destroy: The Treasure of Foggy Mountain” (March 17)

John Goodman narrates the adventure of Ben (Ben Marshall), Martin (Martin Herlihy) and John (John Higgins), three childhood friends turned deadbeat co-workers, who fend off hairless bears, desperate park rangers (Meg Stalter and X Mayo) and a hypocritical cult leader (Bowen Yang) in the hopes of finding a priceless treasure, only to discover that finding the treasure is the easiest part of their journey.

“Dinner Party Diaries with José Andrés” (March 19)

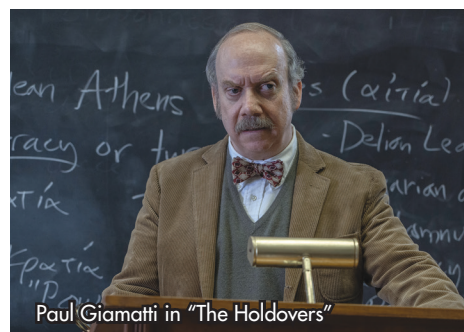

In this funny, vibrant, and unpredictable special, James Beard Award winner José Andrés invites Jamie Lee Curtis, Bryan Cranston and O’Shea Jackson Jr. over for food and conversation. Cannon, Beau Knapp, Darren Barnet, Dominique Columbus, Bob Menery, Catfish Jean, Kevin Carroll, Travis Van Winkle and Hannah Lanier.

Q: I know that Paul Giamatti has been getting awards and rave reviews for the movie “The Holdovers.” Has he done any other television series besides “Billions”? – Karen Wade, via e-mail

22 Thursday, March 14, 2024 | Ponte Vedra Recorder entertainment EXTRA

Paul Giamatti: Not merely a ‘Holdover’ in TV

A: Though it was a limited series, HBO’s “John Adams” is very significant in the actor’s career, since the 2008 historical drama boosted his career substantially by earning him such awards as a Primetime Emmy, a Golden Globe and a Screen Actors Guild honor. By then, he had done guest shots on such shows as “NYPD Blue” and “Homicide: Life on the Street,” and he had hosted a 2005 episode of “Saturday Night Live.” He also had made cable movies including “Winchell” and “The Pentagon Papers.”

Later, Giamatti appeared in multiple episodes of “Inside Amy Schumer” and “Lodge 49” (the latter of which he also was an executive producer of), and he reprised the role of John Adams in voice only in Ken Burns’ 2022 documentary “Benjamin Franklin.” He also was featured in the second season of “30 Coins,” seen in America on Max.

Q: I saw the Denzel Washington movie “Flight” on cable recently, and I recognized the actress who played the chief stewardess from a TV series, but I can’t remember which one. Can you help? – Kara Johnson, Columbus, Ohio

A: While Tamara Tunie may be remembered by daytime viewers as Jessica Griffin on the long-defunct “As the World Turns,” she’s arguably best-known as medical examiner

Melinda Warner on “Law & Order: Special Victims Unit.” She recently resurfaced in that role on another entry in the NBC franchise, “Law & Order: Organized Crime.”

Also a stage actress (and theater producer, a job she first filled on the acclaimed “Spring Awakening”), the New York-centric Tunie has done guest roles on such other series as “Better Call Saul,” “Blue Bloods,” “Billions,” “Elementary,” “Survivor’s Remorse,” “Chicago Fire” (on which she also played the Melinda Warner character), “The Good Wife,” “Days of Our Lives,” “24,” “Sex and the City,” “New York Undercover” and “NYPD Blue.”

What our customers say about us...

Two of my friends recommended Creeks to me and I'm so glad they did. The estimator was friendly, open and honest and gave several options and the installers were courteous, on time and cleaned up the working area. Plus, the system works great. No one likes to have to buy a new AC in the middle of summer, but their price was fair and the work was good. Highly recommend!
- Renay T.
