Pat Sajak and Vanna White spin ABC's 'Celebrity Wheel of Fortune'

If you're playing "Wheel of Fortune," you have to know which letters you want to choose.

However, for a new celebrity version, three letters – namely, ABC – did the choosing.

The network adds Pat Sajak and Vanna White to its roster of primetime game-show personalities as "Celebrity Wheel of Fortune" launches a new Thursday slate of contests starting Jan. 7. (In the others, "The View's" Sara Haines hosts "The Chase," and Craig Ferguson presides over "The Hustler.") Even with stars taking the spins, "Wheel of Fortune" remains the familiar game that's long been a syndication powerhouse, with the celebrity players donating their winnings to charities.

The game itself always is the ultimate "star" of "Wheel of Fortune," though, and Sajak says, "That's been part of my success, recognizing that. It's not 'The Pat Sajak Show.' I may be the most charming and delightful host in the world – and I probably am! – but if there's no game, there's nothing there. You can't get in the way of it."

Viewers "want to see the puzzle and solve it," reasons Sajak. "Unlike most shows like "Jeopardy!," the object is not to try to solve the puzzle first; it's to try to make some money (by picking as many individual letters as possible), so it's leisurely in that sense. The player's not trying to solve it instantly."

That should remain the case as celebrities vie to win money for the organizations they designate. With the late Alex Trebek having hosted a playoff between "Jeopardy!" champions in a special ABC series last winter, Sajak believes that "greased the wheel a little bit" for the "Celebrity Wheel of Fortune" order.

"It's a tricky business," Sajak notes. "The one thing you don't want to start doing is to overexpose the show. In some markets, you'll have a half-hour of (the syndicated) 'Wheel of Fortune' followed by an hour of (the ABC) 'Wheel of Fortune,' and I don't think you can do that too often without watering it down. But for a limited run like this, I think it's fine."

Sajak appreciates the career longevity he's had thanks largely to "Wheel of Fortune," which he has hosted since 1981. His popularity was reaffirmed by the fan outpouring during his absence after emergency intestinal surgery in late 2019. (White moved over and filled in as host, and Sajak's country-singer daughter Maggie was a guest letter-turner.)

"What I take the greatest pride in personally," Sajak reflects, "is that it's very tough to be welcomed into a house for nearly 40 years. The fact that Vanna and I still are is the best thing I can say about it, from a talent or skill point of view."

Steve Coogan makes a rare foray into drama in director Frank Coraci's earnest 2019 drama, in which he stars as abrasive right-wing American radio host Lionel Macomb, whose smug, insular life is disrupted by the arrival of Tess (Taylor Russell), a Black niece he never knew he had. Tess is turning to him at loose ends, because her mom is back in rehab, but Lionel's instinct is to rebuff her.

"Movie: The Hero"

Sam Elliott stars in this 2017 drama as a Western movie icon who attempts to reconnect with his estranged daughter (Laura Prepon) and establish a relationship with a stand-up comic (Krysten Ritter) after he's diagnosed with pancreatic cancer. Nick Offerman, Katharine Ross and Max Gail ("Barney Miller") are also in the cast for director Brett Haley ("Hearts Beat Loud," "All the Bright Places").

"Whitney & Bobbi" (Lifetime - new documentary, Feb. 6)

This new in in-depth documentary looks at the lives Kristina. Prior to Whitney's death more than eight years ago, the mother-daughter duo held a very close bond and worked on music together. Bobbi tragically died in 2015 after being in a coma for six months.

Footage includes intimate conversations with the friends and family that were closest to them.

"The Equalizer" (CBS — series premiere, Feb.

Robyn McCall (Queen Latifah), an enigmatic woman with a mysterious background, uses her extensive skills to help those with nowhere else to turn. McCall comes across to most as an average single mom who is quietly raising her teenage daughter. But to a trusted few, she is "The Equalizer" — an anonymous guardian angel and defender of the downtrodden, who's also dogged in her pursuit of personal redemption. Chris Noth and Lorraine Toussaint also star

"MASTERPIECE: ELIZABETH IS MISSING"

Though it's making its home-video debut in the same week it has its U.S. television premiere on PBS, this mystery already has reaped several rewards for star, two-time Oscar winner Glenda Jackson ... who returned to acting after many years as a British politician. Since this aired in England at the end of 2019, she has earned several European honors for her portrayal of a woman fighting to maintain her independence despite early signs of Alzheimer's disease. When her sole friend (Maggie Steed) apparently disappears, she tries to convince others that foul play is involved, though they don't trust her recollection of things – which she can't even trust herself, given her condition. The situation also revives a tragedy from the protagonist's past. Based on a novel by Emma Healey, the drama also features Helen Behan,

Nell Williams and Mark Stanley ("Sanditon"), but there's no question this principally is Jackson's brilliantly performed show.  (Not rated: AS, P)

"LOVE AND MONSTERS"

No stranger to fantasy-adventure films thanks to the "Maze Runner" series, Dylan O'Brien stars in this entry that brims with special effects and had quite a production history, taking seven years from inception to actual filming ... and then being largely redirected from theaters to On Demand by the coronavirus pandemic. The remnants of a destroyed asteroid convert regular animals into monsters, forcing evacuations in which O'Brien character is one of those sent to a shelter for survivors. He's determined to find his girlfriend (Jessica Henwick), though - so he leaves relative safety to brave mutated ants, toads, worms and the like to reunite with her. Michael Rooker and Ellen Hollmanalso appear. ★★★ (PG-13: AS, P, V) (Also on Blu-ray, 4K Ultra HD and On Demand)

"YELLOW ROSE"

A much-honored success on the film-festival circuit when those events still were being held, this drama follows the quest of a Texas-based Filipino teenager – played by Tony Award-nominated Broadway veteran Eva Noblezada ("Miss Saigon," "Hadestown") - to establish a country-music career, realizing the pursuit will take her away from the family that has made her feel secure. Lea Salonga (the original Tonywinning star of "Miss Saigon") and actual country artist Dale Watson also star in the film from director, producer and co-writer Diane Paragas. ★★★ (PG-13: AS, P) (Also on Blu-ray and On Demand)

"12 HOUR SHIFT"

The title duty at an Arkansas hospital could turn lethal for a nurse, played by horrorgenre veteran Angela Bettis (who had the title role in a television remake of "Carrie"), in this rather graphic melodrama set at the end of the 1990s. She already has her own vices to contend with when her scheming cousin (Chloe Farnworth) lands her in the midst of trouble involving black-market dealers of human organs – including a kidney that gets misplaced, forcing the women to come up with an alternative to save their lives, David Arquette, who has his own horror experience from the "Scream" movies, also stars. ★★ (Not rated, AS, P, GV) (Also on Blu-ray and On Demand)

"GIRLS' NIGHT IN 5-MOVIE COLLECTION"

A potential inspiration for all-night viewing parties at which men are not allowed, a quintet of Universal Pictures' female-centric comedy hits of recent years is showcased in this offering. The group is led by the picture whose huge success opened the floodgates for the genre - "Bridesmaids," featuring the hilariously bawdy, Oscar-nominated performance by Melissa McCarthy that made her a big-screen star. Also included: Anna Kendrick in the musically inclined "Pitch Perfect," which started a franchise; frequent colleagues Tina Fey and Amy Poehler in "Sisters"; Queen Latifah and Tiffany Haddish in "Girls Trip"; and Amy Schumer in "Trainwreck." ★★★ (PG-13, R or unrated, per each title: AS, N, P) (Also on Blu-ray)

Durant ready for anything with Nets

When Kevin Durant and Kyrie Irving signed free agent contracts with the Brooklyn Nets in July 2019, it gave long-suffering Nets fans visions of Eastern Conference dominance and multiple appearances in the NBA Finals.

But it'd have to wait a year. Durant would first have to recover from a torn Achilles suffered in the '19 NBA Finals, leaving their faithful counting down the days until their dynamic duo would step onto the court together.

Well, that day has arrived and Durant presumably is ready to resume a career that saw him win a league MVP award, two Finals MVP trophies and two NBA titles, among many other laurels.

Before he went down, the former Golden State Warrior and Oklahoma City Thunder/Seattle SuperSonic was one of the game's most prolific scorers, sporting per-game averages of 26 points, 6.4 rebounds and 5.9 assists. His four scoring championships and 10 All-Star selections attest to that.

A small forward for much of his 12-year NBA career, the 6-feet-10-inch, 240-pound Durant will slot into that position in Brooklyn as well as play some power forward and center in new head coach Steve Nash's "small ball 5" scheme. He'll also be used to bring the ball up court on possession changes.

He's ready for whatever is asked of him and he's hoping his heel tendon will be, too.

"I'm just looking forward to seeing how my body responds ...," he said.

Durant and the Nets can be seen in action Thursday, Jan. 7, against their Atlantic Division rivals the Philadelphia 76ers in the early game of a TNT doubleheader.

Cooks repurpose last night's dinner into 'Best Leftovers Ever!' on Netflix

David So is a stand-up comedian, entrepreneur and restaurateur who absolutely abhors food waste, so doing a show like "Best Leftovers Ever!" was a no-brainer for him.

Currently streaming on Netflix, the half-hour series pits three contestants in a competition to see who can repurpose last night's Pad Thai, duck confit or fried fish sandwich into something delicious that best impresses judges Jackie Tohn ("GLOW"), Rosemary Shrager ("Rosemary: Queen of the Kitchen") and So ("Death of a Telemarketer"). The winner takes home a $10,000 grand prize.

"You know in Los Angeles, I think food waste is a big thing," the LA-based So explains. "You know, everybody feels like they have to buy some new food every day and that's not what I grew up with. I grew up with Mom and Dad making one big meal, usually on the weekends because they were working all the time, and I had to be creative with those leftovers and make something new for myself during the weekdays. ... Like food waste is terrible, like I hate it because I didn't have that growing up. My mom made sure that we used every bit of food in the house and when she did, it tasted good. It's possible, you know?"

The culinary talent presented here is not on the order of restaurant chefs but rather very good home cooks who have a following online and some may have had culinary training. And the creativity is impressive, such as in the opening episode when one contestant created macaroni and cheese from leftover Pad Thai.

So was wowed by that dish but not all outside-the-box thinking will get his vote in this competition if the food doesn't adhere to his rule No. 1

"For me it's always going to be flavor first," he says. "I think that when it comes to some contestants, they're trying to think so hard outside of the box that they forget that the food has to taste good first – because I've got to eat that.

"So it's great that you have a lot of these abilities and you have a lot of these skills that you probably picked up online or you learned from somebody else. That's fine," he continues. "But just don't forget where you came from and don't forget that the food has to taste good first. There's always going to be like the 'wow!' factor and skill, it's cool. But then it's always going to be about what it tastes at the end of the day."

"Pequeña Victoria"

Titled "Victoria Small" in English, this Argentine comedy follows four very different women who agree to violate surrogacy protocols and co-parent a baby together. Luciano Castro, Facundo Arana, Nicolás Francella, Daniel Hendler and Julieta Díaz head the cast.

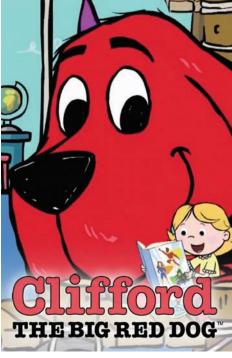

"Movie: Euphoria"

Italian actress Valeria Golino ("The Summer House," "Fortuna") co-wrote and directed this 2018 Italian drama about two distant brothers (Riccardo Scamarcio, Valerio Mastandrea) forced by circumstance to come together and eventually learn they're more alike than they previously had thought. Isabella Ferrari, Valentina Cervi and Jasmine Trinca are also in the cast.

"Movie: The Little Hours"

Set in the Middle Ages, this 2017 comedy stars Dave Franco as a young servant, on the run from his master, who takes refuge at a convent full of unstable nuns who find his presence too distracting. The solid cast includes Alison Brie ("GLOW"), Kate Micucci ("The Last Hurrah"), Aubrey Plaza ("Parks and Recreation"), John C. Reilly ("Moonbase 8") and Fred Armisen ("Portlandia").

"Clifford the Big Red Dog'

Clifford, Emily Elizabeth and their friends return for more adventures in the new season, including a day at the Birdwell Fun Fair, building the coolest clubhouse ever, throwing a welcome party for a new islander and turning the sounds of a thunderstorm into a song. No matter the situation, they always know they can always depend on one another in good times and bad. (ORIGINAL)
