Airborne TV event: New series honors 8th Air Force, WWII fighters

Through all of the ups and downs, changes and adaptations of the world, one thing seems pretty solid: humanity's interest in the art and devastation of war. This interest may be reflected in the hobbies of Civil War re-enactors, one's choice of literature or, as it turns out, one's choice of televised entertainment.

Luckily for the World War II enthusiasts out there, Apple TV+ releases a new series Friday, Jan. 26. Based on author and historian Donald L. Miller's book, "Masters of the Air: America's Bomber Boys Who Fought the Air War Against Nazi Germany," the series, titled simply "Masters of the Air," follows the 100th Bomb Group, an American airborne unit that helped defeat the Nazis during World War II. Nine action-packed episodes are to be released weekly until the March 15 finale, with the first two dropping on the streamer Jan. 26.

Billed as — as British GQ writer Jack King wrote in his Nov. 9 article — the "spiritual sequel to 'Band of Brothers,'" "Masters of the Air" is made possible by the HBO series' producers Steven Spielberg, Tom Hanks and Gary Goetzman, all of whom also collaborated behind the scenes on the 2010 miniseries "The Pacific." While not a direct sequel to either HBO miniseries, "Masters of the Air" promises to take viewers away from a literal boots-on-the-ground look at the war machine and instead takes to the equally treacherous skies.

There are plenty of recognizable faces for viewers to watch in awe, including "The Banshees of Inisherin" (2022) actor Barry Keoghan, who also starred in the popular 2017 war epic "Dunkirk"; "War and Peace" star Callum Turner; and the King of Rock 'n' Roll himself, Austin Butler ("Elvis," 2022).

Also starring in all nine episodes of the series are Ben Radcliffe ("Anatomy of a Scandal"), Anthony Boyle ("Tetris," 2023), Rafferty Law ("Repo Men," 2010), David Shields ("The Crown"), Darragh Cowley ("The Essex Serpent"), Edward Ashley ("The Terror"), Elliot Warren ("The Batman," 2022) and Nate Mann ("Licorice Pizza," 2021). BBC's newest Time Lord, "Doctor Who's" Ncuti Gatwa, and Sawyer Spielberg ("Honeydew," 2020) also appear in the series.

Adapted from Miller's novel by "Band of Brothers" and "The Last Vermeer" (2019) screenwriter John Orloff, "Master of the Air" flies viewers back in time to Europe during the Second World War, a time when the 8th Air Force's 100th Bomb Group become known by its nickname, "The Bloody Hundredth." And like most war films and series, the excitement and patriotism are featured alongside a healthy dose of grounded reflection and plenty of unthinkable devastation.

Per the official Apple TV+ description, the series takes a pilot's-seat approach to the carnage as the men "conduct perilous bombing raids over Nazi Germany and grapple with the frigid conditions, lack of oxygen and sheer terror of combat conducted at 25,000 feet in the air."

While set largely in and over "the bucolic fields and villages of southeast England," the nine-episode event is, in fact, based on a true story and visits "the harsh deprivations of a German prisoner of war camp" (per Apple).

Such sensitive material requires an expert approach, and so Hanks, Spielberg and Goetzman are the perfect team to do the 100th's story justice. With plenty of history in this genre and an undying respect for the perils of war, the trio reproduces "a unique and crucial time in world history" by way of "a genuine cinematic achievement."

"Tom [Hanks] and Steven [Spielberg] have always wanted to visualize cinematically what our author Don Miller has called this 'singular event in the history of warfare,'" said Goetzman, as reported by Esquire. "We're thrilled that Apple TV+ has given us the opportunity to combine the efforts of so many talented people, on-screen and behind the camera, to tell this important story."

What's Available NOW On

"R.M.N." (Jan. 28)

A few days before Christmas, having quit his job in Germany, Matthias (Marin Grigore) returns to his Transylvanian village, wishing to reconnect his son, Rudi (Mark Edward Blenyesi). When a group of new workers are hired at the small factory that Matthias's ex-lover, Csilla (Judith State) manages, the peace of the community is disturbed, underlying fears grip the adults, and frustrations, conflicts and passions erupt through the thin veneer civility.

"FEUD: Capote Vs. The Swans" (Feb. 1)

This second installment in Ryan Murphy's FX "FEUD" anthology is based on the bestselling book "Capote's Women: A True Story of Love, Betrayal, and a Swan Song for an Era" by Laurence Leamer. Acclaimed writer Truman Capote (Tom Hollander) surrounded himself with a coterie of society's most elite women, whom he nicknamed "the swans," Enchanted and captivated by these doyennes, Capote ingratiated himself into their lives, befriending them and becoming their confidante, only to ultimately betray them

"Love & WWE: Bianca & Montez" (Feb. 2)

A fun, exciting peek into the personal lives of one of WWE's hottest married couples, Bianca Belair and Montez Ford, this reality series look back at the couple's wild Road to Wrestle-Mania, as Montez continued his ascent and Bianca fought to stay on top. With the support of their tight-knit group of friends, family and fellow WWE Superstars, the dynamic duo somehow always manage to pull off the impossible.

"The Good Mother" (Available

After the murder of her estranged son, journalist Marissa Bennings (Hilary Swank) forms an unlikely alliance with his pregnant girlfriend, Paige (Olivia Cooke), to track down those responsible. Together, they confront a world of drugs and corruption in the underbelly of a small city.

Chefs Anne Burrell and Tiffany Derry thought they had seen and tasted the worst of it all, but this latest group of recruits shows no signs of finding the bottom of culinary ineptitude, proving even a trip to the supermarket may be too difficult for these lackluster chefs. An all-new episode of "Worst Cooks in America" airs Sunday, Jan. 28, on Food Network, with a list of this season's competitors available at foodnetwork.com/shows/worst-cooks-in-america/photos/ Worst-Cooks-in-America-Season-27-Meet-the-Recruits

Longtime friend of actress Rosario Dawson receives the surprise of a lifetime when Dawson enlists the help of brothers Drew and Jonathan Scott to update and reimagine the friend's unique home, designing a beautifully customized space for the unsuspecting homeowner. See the results of this star-studded makeover in a new episode of "Celebrity IOU," airing Monday, Jan. 29, on HGTV. "The Greatest Night in Pop" (Ian. 29)

On Jan. 25, 1985, dozens of the music industry's biggest names gathered in Los Angeles to record a song — "We Are the World," co-written by two of the 20th century's biggest names in music, Michael Jackson and Lionel Richie — to benefit African famine relief. Chronicling the creation of this massive musical event from start to finish, the film — featuring never-before-seen footage — looks into the early planning stages, writing sessions with Jackson and Richie, the recording sessions inside Henson Studios and more.

"NASCAR: Full Speed" - Season 1 (Ian. 30)

Netflix's newest sports series tracks the 2023 NASCAR Cup Series Playoffs and championship race, following drivers as they battle around the racetrack with one of the most storied titles in motorsports at stake. It features exclusive, extensive access to a range of drivers and teams, headlined by Ryan Blaney, William Byron, Ross Chastain, Denny Hamlin, Bubba Wallace, Kyle Larson, Christopher Bell, Joey Logano, and Tyler Reddick, bringing fans behind the scenes — on and off the track

"The Seven Deadly Sins: Four Knights of the Apocalypse: Part 1" (Ian. 31)

Percival (Shou Komura) has always lived with his grandfather on God's Finger, a remote haven that sits high above the clouds. And though he loves the simple life, he secretly longs for adventure. But, Percival's life is changed forever when an intruder who shares a shocking connection with him tears away everything he's ever known. Setting out on his own, Percival meets new friends along the way who can help him get by.

"Orion and the Dark" (Feb. 2)

Orion seems a lot like your average elementary school kid — shy, unassuming, harboring a secret crush. But underneath his seemingly normal exterior, Orion is a ball of adolescent anxiety, completely consumed by irrational fears. But of all his fears, the thing he's the most afraid of is what he confronts on a nightly basis: the dark. So when the literal embodiment of his worst fear pays a visit, Dark whisks Orion away on a roller coaster ride around the world to prove there is nothing to be afraid of in the night.

InFocus

"Curb Your Enthusiam" - Season 12 (HBO/ Max — Feb. 4, Season Premiere)

It's the end of an era as this iconic comedy comes to a close with its 12th season. Starring Larry David as an over-the-top version of himself, the series offers a tongue-in-cheek depiction of the writer/producer/comedian's fictionalized life. To keep the narrative spontaneous, the series is shot without a script and cast members are given scene outlines and improvise lines as they go. The series also stars Jeff Garlin, Susie Essman, Cheryl Hines, J.B. Smoove, Richard Lewis, Ted Danson, Vince Vaughn and Tracey Ullman.

Ramsay returns: 'Next Level Chef' heats things up with all-new episodes

The "next" evolution in cooking competitions, Gordon Ramsay's "Next Level Chef" returns with an all-new season, beginning with a special episode airing Sunday, Jan. 28, on Fox.

This series — which was renewed for both a third and fourth season in May 2023 — follows competing chefs, divided into teams, as they tackle a series of cooking challenges. During this one-of-a-kind culinary gauntlet, Ramsay's contestants find themselves on the iconic "Next Level Chef" stage, split up across three stories, with each team randomly assigned one of three stunningly different, stacked (and stocked) kitchens — how stocked each kitchen is, however, depends on which level the team has been assigned, with the highest level kitchen equipped with a wide range of modern tools and devices, the middle offering a standard commercial kitchen, and the bottom level containing a limited collection of lower-quality equipment.

In their kitchens, the chefs are then given a short time to collect ingredients before they must prepare, cook and plate their dishes — incorporating any surprise ingredients that may be delivered to them — within a tight, 45-minute period. After presenting their finished concoctions, one member each from the top two teams will be sent up to the top kitchen, where they will compete in a 30-minute, head-to-head challenge that determines who "takes the cake."

During this latest season (Season 3), Ramsay is joined by chefs Nyesha Arrington ("The Taste") and Richard Blais ("Reinventing the Meal"), as together the mentors leave no stone unturned, going out to recruit their own group of talented chefs to compete in the upcoming season, each hopeful of finding the next big name in the culinary game.

For the first time, "Next Level Chef" will also hold audition rounds, taking place over the first three episodes of the season. Professional, home-based and social media-loving chefs will all compete against one another for a chance to be drafted into the game, where they will be mentored by Ramsay, Arrington or Blais.

With the recipe for success in this competition calling for creativity, consistency and cunning, these chefs are willing to do what it takes to make it to the top and win a life-changing $250,000, truly taking themselves to the "next level."

A mouth-watering and jaw-dropping competition, Season 3 of "Next Level Chef" premieres Sunday, Jan. 28, on Fox.

BEST STANLEY KUBRICK MOVIES

"Paths of Glory" (1957): A World War I commander (Kirk Douglas) defends his troops against a general who accuses them of dishonorable conduct in the movie that put director Kubrick on the map with many critics. "Spartacus" (1960): Title star Kirk Douglas — who also produced the film — reunited with Kubrick by hiring him to direct this Roman-gladiator epic, on which Douglas famously also took a stand by giving blacklisted screenwriter Dalton Trumbo full credit for his work. The picture's four Oscar wins included one for co-star Peter Ustinov.

"Lolita" (1962): The ads acknowledged that many people thought a movie never could be made of Vladimir Nabokov's controversial novel about an older-man/younger-woman affair, with James Mason and Sue Lyon in those roles, but Kubrick managed to do it (with Nabokov writing the screenplay). Shelley Winters and Peter Sellers also star.

"Dr. Strangelove, or: How I Learned to Stop Worrying and Love the Bomb" (1964): One of the most legendary of all movie satires, this dark comedy puts the fate of the world in the hands of some questionable leaders ... with nuclear war an imminent threat. Peter Sellers plays multiple roles, but one of the film's most unforgettable images belongs to veteran character actor Slim Pickens.

"2001: A Space Odyssey" (1968): A movie so singular and famous that Kubrick's name immediately comes to mind when it's mentioned, this sci-fi milestone examines the battle of wills between two astronauts (Keir Dullea, Gary Lockwood) and the computer that runs the spaceship they're aboard. The juxtaposition of futuristic sights and classical music is ingenious. Turner Classic Movies shows the picture Thursday, Feb. 1, as part of its series "The Power of Film."

"A Clockwork Orange" (1971):
Kubrick went back to the future in a much different way with this memorable adaptation of Anthony Burgess' novel, with Malcolm McDowell as Alex, a gang leader who undergoes a brutal rehabilitation to cure him of his penchant for "the old ultra-violence."

Q: What was the last work that Bradley Cooper did for TV before "Maestro"? – Mark Cook, via e-mail

A: It should be mentioned that "Maestro" had a limited theatrical engagement, to qualify for film awards, before it began its Netfix run. With that said, Cooper – who directed the film in addition to starring in it as music icon Leonard Bernstein – previously worked in TV last in CBS' series version of his movie "Limitless," reprising his role as Eddie Morra on a recurring basis since his film career was so busy then.

Cooper had plenty of time for TV work at the start of his career, earning a very early credit in a "Sex and the City" episode, then starring with Jennie Garth in a 2003 movie called "The Last Cowboy" that still repeats often on Hallmark Drama. He then made such shows as "The Street," "Touching Evil" and "Jack & Bobby" and did guest shots on "Law & Order: Special Victims Unit" and "Law & Order: Trial by Jury" before landing a series role that gave him a particular boost toward fame: Will

Tippin, who didn't know that his close friend Sydney Bristow (Jennifer Garner) was a covert spy, on "Alias."

How Bradley Cooper has conducted himself on TV

After that, "Kitchen Confidential" and an arc on "Nip/Tuck" coincided with Cooper's film career gaining traction, and he has stayed primarily with movie work since. However, he did return to TV to play his "Wet Hot American Summer" movie role again in the limited series "Wet Hot American Summer: First Day of Camp."

Q: Why wasn't Kelly Clarkson at the recent Daytime Emmy Awards to accept for her wins? – Laura Kenner, via e-mail

A: It likely had to do with her work schedule, now that her syndicated weekday "Kelly Clarkson Show" is based in New York. The award ceremony was in Los Angeles, which would have been much easier for Clarkson to maneuver if she was still doing her show from that city. However, she did post on Instagram right after the Daytime Emmys, stating that she was "so proud of my whole team for our wins (for outstanding daytime talk series and outstanding daytime talk series host) tonight."
